The Problem

- 📜 Volume: Thousands of judgements generated daily.

- 🔍 Keyword Failure: Searching "Wife Beating" won't find cases filed under "Section 498A" using standard search.

- ⏳ Time: Reading 50-page documents just to find relevance is inefficient.

Project Scope

- Semantic Vector Search

- AI Summarization (1-paragraph)

- Lawyer Recommendation System

- Real-time Legal News

Wahid v. State Govt. of NCT of Delhi

CRIMINAL APPEAL No. 201/2020 • [2025] 2 S.C.R. 363 • Hide Summary

Penal Code, 1860 – ss.392, 397, 411 – Arms Act, 1959 – s.25 – Prosecution case was that complainant (PW-1) while travelling along with other passengers in a Gramin Sewa (mini bus) got robbed by four persons armed with weapons – FIR was registered – Appellant-W was convicted by the Trial Court for offence punishable u/s.392 r/w. s.397 IPC, but acquitted u/s.411 IPC – Appellant-A was convicted and sentenced u/s. 392 r/w. s.397 IPC and s.25(1) of the Arms Act – Both the appellants filed appeal before the High Court which were dismissed – Correctness:Held: Having perused the materials on record, prosecution has succeeded in establishing that on the night of 3.12.2011 the travellers of Gramin Sewa were robbed by four persons – However, mere proof of robbery is not sufficient to hold that the accused persons who were put to trial were the ones who committed the offence – In the instant case, neither the accused persons were named nor they were known either to the complainant or the witnesses from before – Prosecution case is rather too simple, that is, two days later, on 5.12.2011, PW-1 himself noticed the accused persons standing near DTC Bus Depot; immediately thereafter he informed the police about their presence; the police went to the spot, arrested them, and, upon search of those persons, recovered *   Author

Challenges & Solutions

🛑 CHALLENGE: AI LATENCY

Generating summaries for 10 results sequentially took 15+ seconds.

✅ SOLUTION:

Implemented Python's `ThreadPoolExecutor` to fire 10 API requests in parallel. Reduced time to < 2s.

⚠️ CHALLENGE: FRONTEND STATE

History dropdown was closing before clicks registered due to 'blur' event.

✅ SOLUTION:

Added a `setTimeout` delay in `main.js` to allow event propagation.

📊 CHALLENGE: DATA CONSISTENCY

Scraping disparate legal sources resulted in duplicates and "spurious rows".

✅ SOLUTION:

Engineered a robust Pandas cleaning script to sanitize and normalize dataset structure.

Conclusion

LegalToday bridges the gap between complex legal data and user intent.
